Foreword

Since 1932 the Whitney Museum has held a series of annual and biennial exhibitions surveying the field of contemporary American art. In the present exhibition, like its predecessors, the artists participate by invitation instead of submitting to a jury, and works are selected by members of the Museum's staff. By a tradition which goes back to Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney's first activities in American art, no prizes are awarded in this exhibition.

This year's Annual is devoted to sculpture and graphic arts. The latter are comprised entirely of prints in order to mark the Museum's return to an active program of exhibiting and purchasing in this field. Next year's Annual will be devoted to paintings.

The exhibition is made possible by the cooperation of art galleries, private collectors and artists who have generously made loans to the exhibition and to whom we wish to make grateful acknowledgment.

A generous donation from the Friends of the Whitney Museum has made it possible to have more comprehensive catalogues since 1960, with larger format and a much greater number of illustrations.
